All trains, both east and westbound, stop at ENGLEWOOD, which is connected with the World's Fair grounds by horse-car line, also by electric railway, making the trip in twelve minutes; fare five cents.

Trains 1, 3 and 9 westbound, and trains 8, 10 and 12 eastbound, will also stop at BURNSIDES, near 95th St., and Cottage Grove Avenue, from which station an electric railway makes trips to the Fair grounds every six minutes, fare five cents; also Illinois Central R. R., suburban service, making trips every four minutes. Baggage cannot be checked to Burnsides, as it is a platform stop only, there being no facilities for handling baggage at that point.

The high altitude of Lakewood and the excellence of its hotels make it one of the most attractive of summer resorts. Near Lakewood, and within easy reach by the swift and commodious boats of the Chautauqua Steamboat Company, are the famous CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY GROUNDS, the midsummer Mecca of a vast army of intelligent people. At Lakewood are hotels equal to those of any other summer resort. It will be found to be a most desirable point at which to break the journey to or from Chicago.
