

Starting its second year of service . . .
NEW YORK — BUFFALO — CHICAGO

To provide Erie patrons a service in keeping with the importance of the communities on its route The Erie Limited was inaugurated a year ago. In its short life it has established itself as an outstanding unit among the distinctive passenger trains of the country. Its reception by the traveling public has been gratifying.

The Erie Limited is an ambassador of good will to the cities and towns along its route. The whistle of its locomotive is a personal, neighborly greeting, and an invitation to become better acquainted. It is a train with a personality.

In entering on its second year The Erie Limited seeks to retain the friends it has made and to increase its personal acquaintances through you.
