The good life in the middle-sized town – industry's big discovery

● Executive personnel who enjoy the social opportunities of the middle-sized town show it clearly in the office. Employees who can work their own vegetable garden or who can go fishing or play golf after working hours lead a better-balanced life and do a better job. These are some of the many advantages that industry enjoys by locating its new plants in the middle-sized towns. The Erie Area is rich in these middle-sized towns which meet the requirements of the government's dispersal plan for industry. Remember, too, that the Erie Area is in the heart of the nation's largest single market.

One-third of America's people live, work and buy here. Raw materials, production and markets are close together! Industry is served by the dependable Erie Railroad which connects direct with New York Harbor for export business and offers unsurpassed service between New York and Chicago and nationwide by connecting railroads.
