ILLINOIS • INDIANA • OHIO • PENNSYLVANIA • NEW JERSEY • NEW YORK

THESE six states in "The Erie Area" are making a contribution to the world unsurpassed by any similar region.

From these states have come the telephone, telegraph, automobile, airplane, motion pictures, talking machine, steamboat, reaper, and scores of other inventions which make life more enjoyable and more secure.

Truly this is the "Industrial Heart" of America—an area in which industry works at its best.

Blessed with abundant raw materials, plentiful water, and rich supplies of coal, petroleum, and gas, everything needed for industrial progress is available in the area ably served by the Erie.

Your industrial plans can be fulfilled quickly and effectively in "The Erie Area". For your copy of the new illustrated map and detailed information, write George F. Weston, Industrial Commissioner, Erie Railroad, Cleveland, Ohio.
