The Industrial Heart of America

Concentrated in the six states directly served by the Erie Railroad is the "Industrial Heart of America".

Mines, streams, and forests in this rich, fertile region furnish an endless supply of raw materials—coal, steel, petroleum, lumber, sand, lime, and a score of other products.

From fields come abundant crops of Soya beans, wheat, corn, oats, fruits, vegetables, and a great variety of other agricultural products.

With all these natural resources, industry finds it more advantageous to be located in "The Erie Area". For everything, from raw materials to ideal manufacturing conditions, is available here, and it is near the greatest American markets for finished products.

The Erie Railroad serves well this great industrial heart. In war as in peace the Erie provides fast, safe, dependable transportation in bringing raw materials to industry and finished products to markets.
